The publishers claim that the Folio, has increased its circulation more than ten thousand copies since last January. This is a remarkable event in journalism and demonstrates the fact that the people are not slow to see the advantages of buying their music in this form. The Folio is edited by DEXTER SMITH, the well-known song-writer, and published at one dollar a year by White, Smith & Perry, Boston. Specimen copies are sent free to any address.

Phoenix Insurance Company

Hartford, Conn.
Branch Cincinnati, October 11, 1871.
To Western and Southern Agents.

Gentlemen:—We are not as yet fully advised of the extent of our losses in the great fire at Chicago, but after a close and careful examination of our own agents that agency, we feel to inform our agents and patrons that the Phoenix is able to meet every loss sustained under its policies honorably, leaving a handsome margin of our large surplus for future operations. The Phoenix will do its duty in this emergency without flinching, AND IT HAS THE AUTHORITY. To our agents and a generous public we look for a prompt appreciation of our efforts to render the "Old Phoenix" eminently deserving of a Nation's confidence.

By order of the President,
H. M. MAGILL,
General Agent.

Those in want of Substantial Insurance are invited to call upon John H. Tyler Agent of the above reliable companies at Savannah Mo.

A few days since we were pleased to take by the hand our old friend Gallant Rains; he was one of the first settlers of the county. The first court ever held in this county was at his residence on the place now owned by J. C. Waterman. In our conversation with him it seemed to us as though but a short time had passed since our boyhood days when we attended the great bear dance, some twenty years ago; where the citizens of Andrew County attended en-masse. Twenty years have come and gone, but we could see but very little change in our old friend, he is just the same jovial kind hearted whole souled, Gallant, as of old. He has just returned from California, to see about some land in Nodaway Co. we cannot tell how long a visit he may make us; but one thing we do know that he has a host of friends who wish him God speed wherever his lot may be.

CONCERT.—The Concert given by Prof. White and his pupils in Music, at the Court House on last Saturday evening, was not attended by our citizens as well as we hoped to see it. This was not however, on account of any disrespect to the Prof. for he is well esteemed in this city as a good musician, and a worthy young man, and as a teacher gives entire satisfaction so far as we have heard. But the fact is no sufficient notice was given of the Concert and many of our best citizens did not know of it at all.

Not being present at the entertainment we cannot speak of it from personal knowledge but we are told by good judges who were present that the concert was so far as the Prof. and his class are concerned a decidedly fine affair. The songs were of the best selections and were well sung. We have heard special mention made of the manner in which Miss Fanny Hobson, Miss Rhoda Bish and Miss Belle Russell, rendered their pieces. They are said to be among the best singers in the city.

Prof. White and Mr. Swartz each did splendidly. Altogether the concert merited much better patronage than it received, and our people who failed to go, missed a rare musical treat. We hope they will distinguish between the merit of acts, and the wordless benediction and when opportunity offers bestow a better patronage on home talent.

W. A. Price will now pay an advance price for Rye in ready cash.

A NEW PAPER.—We have before us the first issue of the Andrew County Republican. It is a handsome sheet full of news, and gives evidence of the best editorial ability. John Sherman is the publisher. We wish the new paper great success.—St. Joe Herald.

A S. Hunter the popular proprietor of the Clothing Emporium on the South side of the Square has repaired and renovated his establishment until his old patrons hardly recognize it. Mr. S. keeps the very best assortment of gloves, gentlemen's under clothing, shawls, overcoats, comforts, &c., which he sells at the lowest cash prices.

Large Stock of Ladies' Hats in all styles just received at TYNER'S.

W. A. Price will purchase all the good White Navy Beans, Flax seed, Rye, wheat, Lard, Dry Hides, Furs &c.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the fact that H. H. Dobbs on the South side of the Square has just received a large and superior stock of drugs, chemicals, paints, oils, varnish, glass, putty, fine toilet soaps, and fancy articles, notions and groceries, which he is selling at reduced low prices. He is anxious to please customers and so keeps everything in the drug line that is needed for. Those who want anything in his line will do well to give him a call.

Key Guit's Lecture last night was a splendid effort. We were not present, but all who were present of it in terms of the highest commendation.

On Tuesday morning last Miss Alice St. Clair, an interesting young lady about six years of age, was accidentally killed while drawing water at a well she slipped and fell in head foremost, striking her head on a rough stone and receiving a fracture of the base of her skull. She died at once.

SAMUEL COLE HEARD FROM.—We clip the following from the Keokuk (Iowa) Gate-City. Samuel Cole, a young man aged twenty-one years, was yesterday sentenced to the Penitentiary for seven years, for stealing twenty-five dollars five years ago, when he was only sixteen years of age. The prisoner and his lawyers plead hard for mercy, on the ground of the youth of the prisoner when he stole the money, but the evidence, showing that Cole has been a criminal running at large, and preying on community whenever he could get a chance, concluded it best to give him a good apprenticeship under that excellent master mechanic Hon. Martin Healy, at the State House, in Fort Madison, and so sentenced him to his wardship for seven years.

Cole will be remembered by our readers as the individual who escaped from our jail last Summer.

Just arrived at TYNERS, VELVETINE CLOAKINGS, Chicago.

THAT TREMENDOUS follow the Democrats have been so long expecting. Reaction, has come at last. He has been elected against the Union Democracy in North Carolina and Kentucky; thrashing them in one state and very nearly doing so in the other. He has reacted against Tammany thieves and will carry New York overwhelmingly for the Republicans. He has reacted against the Democracy in Montana, California, Wyoming, Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New Mexico, and everywhere, piling up republican majorities. He is now Reacting in Stockard and Dunklin Counties in this State. What do the Democracy think of Reaction by this time, oh how?

JOSEPH CARSON, President.
GEORGE SHARP, Secretary.

The elections this fall are favorable to the Democrats. That is to say the Democrats are being beaten so thoroughly this year that it seems fairly possible they may next year have a measure of political wisdom larger than they have lately been accustomed to.—Herald St. Joe.

The members of the Reform Association of Washington city, composed of citizens irrespective of party, combined for the promotion of the great common interests, and the obliteration of sectionalism from national politics, had a public meeting there last Saturday evening. Speeches were made by ex-Confederate and Union soldiers fraternal and national in spirit. One of the speakers, an ex-Confederate soldier who served with Forrest through the war, said he had faith which no world could express, in the sublime significance of the mission and destiny of the American Union, and endeavored the national flag as the emblem of liberty and equality to men of all nationalities.

Among the richest revelations against the Tammany ring the fact that two negro ministers were paid a hundred dollars a month each for making jokes at their public performances, against the Republican party and its prominent leaders.
